

The City of Nanaimo is a rapidly growing community with a population of approximately 90,000. Nestled between the mountains and the ocean, on the east coast of Vancouver Island, we are centrally located, about 1½ hours from Victoria and 2 hours from Vancouver by ferry. With a university and well-developed parks, recreational, cultural and social amenities, Nanaimo is truly an extraordinary place to live.

Assistant Chief - Education and Training (Competition 18-94)

The City of Nanaimo is seeking a permanent full-time Assistant Chief - Education and Training. Reporting to the Deputy Fire Chief – Operations, the Assistant Chief - Education and Training is a member of the fire management team and is accountable for the design, development, scheduling, implementation, evaluation and analysis of the education and training program for career members as well as Paid On-call staff. The incumbent is the spokesperson for the Education and Training Division, responsible for the Fire Training Centre and for ensuring that educational programs include the most up-to-date techniques and methods and manages the related budget. The incumbent determines education and training needs, facilitates programs and evaluates results in a strong relationship with the Deputy Fire Chief - Operations and Assistant Fire Chiefs – Operations.

The Assistant Chief – Education and Training oversees the Vancouver Island Emergency Response Academy and maintains accreditation certification for a number of programs. The incumbent supports members in the Professional Development Program by facilitating educational opportunities and management experiences.
