

FIRE CHIEF BOB PATERSON MEMORIAL SCHOLARSHIP

The Bob Paterson Memorial Scholarship has been established by the Fire Chiefs' Association of British Columbia in memory of Fire Chief Bob Paterson, 100 Mile House Volunteer Fire Department, who was killed on duty while responding to a motor vehicle accident in 1997.

The scholarship will be awarded to an applicant who is a dependent child of an Active member of the Fire Chiefs' Association of British Columbia, who is pursuing their goal of higher education.

Applicants must intend to enroll at an accredited university or college to pursue any course of study which will lead to a recognized degree, or must plan to attend a recognized regional college or institute of technology in a degree program. Preference may be given to those applicants that are planning to study in a fire service related discipline.

This will be an annual award of:

$1,000

The awarding of the scholarship will be based on the academic standing of the applicant and their involvement with school and community.
